Artist's Statement:

I have been told that my paintings look like 21st century folk art. What a great compliment, since I have only been painting for three years. I love the old world charm and the simple life it had. So, a lot of my inspiration comes from century old stone and tile mosaics from the last 6000 years.

No stone or tile is used. These mosaic paintings are meant to look just the way you see them, sometimes raised and nothing straight or even. Some of the larger pieces can take up to 60 hours. This is a labor of love. I hope you can see the passion behind each one.

I have a signature painting called the (Garum Jug) this is hand painted and your
