Artist's Statement:

I'm a Puerto Rican artist that has lived in Ocoee for more than 10 years. I've worked for Orange County Public Schools since 1989, and I've been creating Folk Art for more than 30 years. I also offer workshops for children in and around Orange County (i.e. Schools, Convention Center, etc.) and have done various gallery art exhibitions throughout the state and abroad. Further, I've earned two scholarships from the Crealde' School of Arts, two grants from the UCF Cultural Heritage Alliance and another grant from the State of Florida Folklife Apprenticeship Program.

I enjoy working with mixed media and teaching children and the elderly about my art. I specialize in combining art with literature to help children have the most wonderful experience possible when reading. Being the art instructor for my multicultural workshop and studio, it has given me the opportunity to work with children of diverse cultures.
