Artist's Statement:

DISCO 70 and 80's is the music he listens to while he creates. It's the music of a community coming together on a Friday or Saturday night. He remembers those times well. His goal is to harness that manic energy and put it on a blank canvas.

His art is never still, it's manic, always excitement, like (25 years ago) drinking a rum and coke watching the lights above at the disco. Although self-taught and creating all his life, he has taken many workshops at the Maitland Art Center and the Crealde School of Art, and continues to grow as an artist.
