Artist's Statement:

Since I enjoy both traveling and gardening, it is only natural that these should inspire me creatively. To express what I have seen, learned and experienced artistically gives me a great sense of sharing and connectedness with humankind. If the result of my artistic endeavors can lift another's spirits or bring a smile to their face and in so doing enrich someone's life, then I have accomplished my goal. I paint canvases, furniture, wall borders, murals and decorative home accessories.
