Melba Dukes Gianelloni

Painting/Drawing

Courtyard on Governor Nichols Street, New Orleans (Oil Painting – 24" x 36") 1996

Artist's Statement:

Although I work in multi-media, my first love is oil painting. I like best working on location but in my studio I use my own photographs and plain air sketches. My work is traditional and includes people and places from my travels and my own environment, focusing a lot on my own beloved Vieux Carre in New Orleans where it all began.
