Painting/Drawing

"April", 2001 (18" x 24" Oil on canvas)

Artist's Statement:

My acrylic paintings often center around Afro-Caribbean and Latin themes. Most of are compact and vibrant. My drawings and pastels are often erotic visions of couples spiraling around each other, weightlessly, in "free-fall". I am also a student of lucid dreaming. The dreams that I remember are wild. I draft images from my dreams into my private work when possible. I have a special interest in oil portraiture. The human face is a landscape that unfolds forever, defying total exploration. It's hard to do well. You can't fake it. A portrait is serious work conveying truthfulness, dignity, style and sometimes mystery.
