Painting/Drawing

Betty (Acrylic on Canvas – 72" x 60") 1999

Artist's Statement:

My artistic vision is one that holds our species in the highest regard. I believe we have begun the next evolution, that of the machine and its artificial intelligence. The art I am submitting for the Registry is a celebration of the human spirit and its ability to transcend even life itself. I have submitted two paintings that compress the silent emotions of a glance, the capture of a moment that may never be real without the human condition. The looking up in awe of Starstruck falls far short of the strength and self-assuredness of the young Betty, who after all has Betty Davis eyes.
