Artist's Statement:

I have a passion for rich, bold colours and texture and the effects of light and shadow of everything that is. Art is life; life is art. Life provides the inspiration; art provides the expression. Each medium, whether printmaking, painting or sculpture, is a vehicle for expressing how I "see" and "feel" about the world that I live in, whether it is a jazz club, or a birch tree found along a rugged trail, or an old weathered building. My work is always closely connected with the forms of life around me, experiences, observations, forms, and colours.
