

Pancho

Hi I'm Pancho, an active 6 month old pit bull mix who had a rough start in life. I was abandoned by my owner for days with no food or water. Since coming here I've gained my strength back and now look at me. I am strong, smart and sweet. I am still a puppy and my owners didn't spend much time with me, so I still need help with basic obedience. But I am very eager to please, and with plenty of positive reinforcement, I will do great! I already know sit and I've obviously mastered looking cute. Need a running partner? I have tons of energy and I'd love to spend it all on you!
