Painting

"Bleeding Hearts" (oil 30" x 40") 2001

Artist's Statement:

I have explored different areas of art to include Graphic Design and Illustration, but felt most at home with oil painting. I discovered that I truly enjoy painting flowers. This perfect object from nature allows me to play with the contrast between concave and convex surfaces of each petal, and the interplay of positive and negative space. I felt the urge to use large brushes and paint close ups of flowers in vibrant colors on large canvases, forcing the viewer to stand and take notice of them.
