Petals (Encaustic on acrylic board)
8 ½" X 9 ¼" 2004

Artist's Statement:

Each of my paintings has a story. I begin a painting based on the mood I am in as I sit down to work. I may start with a sketch or a photograph and paint around that. Regardless of how I begin, the artwork ultimately takes on a life of its own and I usually end up straying from my original idea. I paint with encaustic wax, (beeswax mixed with pigment), and incorporate other materials such as acrylic paint or crayon after the wax has hardened. The medium of encaustic is versatile, tactile, and lovely and I am grateful to have discovered it.
