Greetings Orange County Neighbors,

Every Orange County citizen has something special to offer our community to make it stronger, healthier, and more vibrant. Now, more than ever, Orange County residents and employees are investing their time, talents, and energy in improving our community. Orange County Government is an important partner in "Connecting People with Their Government." It is imperative that we make sure that the connections between citizens and neighborhood organizations are firmly in place. These organizations provide the resources and information necessary to sustain and improve the building blocks of our community and our neighborhoods.

For all these reasons, I hope you will attend the 18th Annual Orange County Community Conference on Saturday, July 21, 2012 and discover new ways to contribute to this great place we call home. At this exciting event, you will meet many Orange County leaders and neighbors, who just like you, are interested in gaining valuable knowledge about ways to improve neighborhoods and receiving vital information about County services and programs that help residents to make their neighborhoods flourish.

As we continue to come together to share ideas on how to enhance our community, Orange County will continue to be one of the best places to live! I look forward to seeing you at the conference. Encourage your neighbors and friends to attend the conference and be a part of improving our community!

Sincerely,
Teresa Jacobs
Orange County Mayor

9:15 a.m. - 10:15 a.m. Session A Workshops

Community Event Planning

Are you planning an event for your community? This workshop will provide useful information to help increase participation in your neighborhood, as well as planning tips to assist with preparing for your event.

Green Homes and Neighborhoods (Condo Associations Encouraged to Attend)

Participants in this workshop will learn water conservation, energy efficiency and waste stream reduction strategies, and how these strategies benefit you as an individual and our community as a whole.

Home Safety & Security

Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (better known as CPTED) is the proper design and effective use of the built environment to discourage criminal activity. Learn basic CPTED principles and concepts and how to apply these concepts to reduce crime in and around your home.

Neighborhood Awareness

Do you need help "getting the word out" in your community? This workshop will provide you with the tools and techniques that you need in order to educate your neighborhood group or organization. The discussion will also focus on various ways outreach programs can assist your neighborhood with developing more effective leaders.

Property Association Legal Issues

Do you have questions about legal issues impacting your property association? This is your opportunity to ask a lawyer legal questions related to property association matters. Experts will answer your generalized questions. Please keep in mind that specific cases cannot be resolved or discussed in this short one-hour workshop.

10:25 a.m. - 11:25 a.m. Session B Workshops

Cultivating New Organization Leaders

Are you stuck in your neighborhood leadership role? Too often neighborhood organizations fail to mentor members to become future leaders. This workshop will cover how to create a leadership succession plan: strategies to identify & train potential new leaders!

Home Foreclosure

Is your community being negatively affected by foreclosures? Attend this awesome workshop and learn about the tools available to assist you and your neighborhood to effectively deal with these issues.

Neighborhoods Putting Government to Work

Our homes and our neighborhoods are the places that mean the most to us, and they are also where we can put our tax dollars to work. This workshop teaches neighborhood leaders how to access Orange County Government programs and services that are designed to address neighborhood issues. Come master the art of partnering with your government.

Legal Q & A for Voluntary Organizations (for Voluntary and Non-Profit Organizations ONLY)

Do you have legal questions about governance, grievances or appeals, records, disputes, reserve funding, foreclosures, and organizational rules? Attend this workshop and get the answers! Please come with your questions so the attorneys specializing in HOA & Condo Association law can be prepared to address them.

Property Association Legal Issues (Repeat)

Do you have questions about legal issues impacting your property association? This is your opportunity to ask a lawyer legal questions related to property association matters. Experts will answer your generalized questions. Please keep in mind that specific cases cannot be resolved or discussed in this short one-hour workshop.

12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. Session C Workshops

Simple Safety Solutions for Neighborhoods

There are simple and inexpensive things you and neighbors can do to reduce the threat of crime in your neighborhood. This workshop will provide practical solutions to the common crime and public safety related issues that neighborhoods have.

Enforcing Deed Restrictions

Find out the inside information on "how to" enforce covenants and restrictions in your property association. This workshop will equip you with the tools so your property association can proactively resolve issues affecting your neighborhood.

Fundraising for Neighborhood Projects

Want to do some community projects? Come to this fun workshop to learn what county funding sources are available to your neighborhood. You will also learn creative ideas for raising funds.

Neighborhood Leaders Networking Roundtable

The goal of this interactive facilitated workshop is to encourage networking and mentorship among neighborhood leaders. The discussion will focus around how to connect with other neighborhood leaders surrounding your neighborhood in the effort of building a coalition to effectively address broader community issues.

Property Appraiser Website Tips and Tricks for Homeowners

Join Bill Donegan and find out about the exciting changes to his website! This workshop will highlight issues affecting homeowners with a LIVE demo of updated website maps and tools that allow you to easily search and navigate important information related to property ownership, sales, assessments and more.
