

Work Release Center

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How much do I have to pay to be in the program?

- Subsistence is $50.05 per week.

2. Can I keep my job I had before incarceration?

- Work Release vocational placement staff does a job analysis on all new jobs. If your job meets the Work Release criteria for employment, then you can maintain your pre-incarceration employment.

3. Does Work Release provide transportation to my place of employment?

- No, you will have to utilize public transportation, your employer, co-workers or family to transport you to and from work.

4. Can my family visit me while I am in Work Release?

- Yes, the inmate can have visits during the designated visitation hours.