

Studies available from the Department of Accountability, Research and Assessment

A-School Feeder Patterns		List of the elementary and middle schools that feed each high school. Includes both primary and secondary feeding patterns
B-Ends Report		OCPS School board has a set of specified outcomes called Ends. The Ends report documents the operational definition and percent completion of each end.
C-Charter School District Report		In return for being granted charter school district status by the State of Florida, OCPS set 15 specific goals. The Charter School District Report documents progress toward those goals. This is the 02-03 version of the report. The 03-04 version is nearing completion.
D-Mobility Memo with Tables		This is a table indicating changes in mobility by school from school year 2002-02 to school year 2002-03
E-Disruption Index, contribution of variables		This is a brief study looking at the variables of race and poverty.
F-Disruption Index Trends		This is a brief study examining changes in demographic variables that are identified in the Disruption Index
G-Magnet Study		A study performed in School year 2002-03 on the effects of magnet transfers on changes in enrollment, achievement on FCAT and Grade Point Average
Superintendent's Quarterly Report -- Quarter 4 School Year 2003-04 (AVAILABLE IN HARD COPY FORMAT, BY REQUEST: kit.pepper@ocps.net		This lists a number of variables by building such including: Historical School Grade & FCAT Data Achievement relative to prediction Student Absences Discipline offences (levels 3 & 4) Reading Tests during the Year
I-Gap Study		This is a comprehensive look at the Gap between Black, Hispanics and Whites in OCPS. This is an award winning study that received first place in a competition at American Educational Research Association (AERA) meeting.
J-ACT, SAT, AP Memo		These are tables looking at current and historical results on the ACT, SAT and AP Exams.
K-School Choice Transfer Study		This was study looking at whether changes occurred in the achievement of students who transferred using school choice.
L-State of Florida A+ Grade		A simple table showing the grade history of each building and the number of points each building received in each of the categories that contribute to the school grade.